

2016 Latino Business Summit

Innovation Opportunity Impact

Are you doing business with the fastest growing market in the country? What does the future economy look like with Latinos starting businesses at double the growth rate of all U.S. firms?

Tina Aldatz will talk to us about her rise to success and overcoming challenges in her life. This powerful day will have you reflecting on overcoming your own obstacles and finding power within yourself!

Hear from top Angel Investors and Entrepreneurs on how to gain access to capital both private and commercial, how to maximize financial and social value in order to scale your enterprise.

Morning Keynote Manny Fernandez
